FIX RANGE AT $5.50 to $4

Definite Action or Discussion Avoided by State
Coal Men

Columbus, Aug. 24.—Ohio mine operators and dealers in conference here with the state fuel commission indicated their willingness to accept a "fair price" ranging from $5.50 to $4 per ton for coal at the mines depending upon shipping facilities and general conditions.

Definite action or discussion was avoided by the coal men assembled in conference to the Valentine anti-trust law, which is aimed at any combination for fixing prices.

A large operator, Governor Davis stated favored fixing a fair price of $5.50 at the mine for September, $5 for October, $4.50 for November and $4 for March, the downward variation being based upon expected gradual improvement of coal mining conditions, including shipping conditions.

"Fear of many operators that their participation in any state efforts to determine a fair coal price level in Ohio might constitute a violation of the Valentine anti-trust law and subject them to criminal prosecution prevented full participation of Ohio operators in the meeting," Governor Davis asserted, following the meeting.

The Southern Ohio Coal Exchange, The Pittsburgh Vela Operators' Association and the Central and Northern Ohio Coal Operators' Association declared their inability to join in the conference owing to the Valentine anti-trust law, according to Governor Davis.

"However in view of the sincerity of attending operators, who represented three coal mining districts and of wholesalers and retailers' representatives of the entire state to deal fairly with the public and to conform to a price that may be established, taking into account the working conditions and reduced shipping facilities surrounding coal mining in Ohio, I anticipate a fair price for Ohio, as soon as decided on will be generally observed," Governor Davis asserted.

CANDLER'S WIFE IS UNDECIDED ABOUT GETTING DIVORCE

Refuses to Make Statement
Concerning Her Future
Plans.

Honolulu, Aug. 24.—"My plans for getting a divorce are unsettled and conditions are such that I cannot make any further statement now regarding my future domestic relations with my husband," it was declared today by Mrs. Walter Candler, wife of the wealthy Atlanta, Ga., banker, who was sued for $100,000 damages for an alleged attack upon the wife of Clyde R. Byfield, an Atlanta automobile dealer.

Mrs. Candler was to have sailed for the United States on board the steamship Matsonia on Wednesday, but was unable to secure accommodations. Consequently she will remain here until August 30 when she plans to sail for home upon the liner Ventura.

Mrs. Candler said she would visit Pasadena, Cal., for several days, intimating that she would return to Atlanta from California. Previously she had said she planned to make her future home at Pasadena with her child. The alleged attack which furnished the basis of Mrs. Byfield's damage suit was said to have taken place in the woman's state room on board the Cunard liner Berengaria on the night of July 16 last, while the Candler and Byfield parties were enroute to Europe. Previously Mr. Candler had taken action to prevent Byfield from realizing on a $20,000 note which the banker said he had given Byfield in Paris.

COAL PROBE WILL BE UNDER WAY IN MONTH IS BELIEF

Winslow Bill Creating Commission sent to the Senate.

Washington, Aug. 24.—The proposed governmental investigation of the coal industry, as recommended by President Harding will be under way within a month, it was predicted today by administration leaders.

The Winslow bill, creating a federal coal commission to carry out the probe, was sent to the senate today following its passage by the house. The measure was intended primarily to find a legislative remedy to prevent future recurrences of the mine strike and resultant coal shortage.

Sponsors of the bill believe its passage will be facilitated by senate leaders in order to have the commission at work before the winter coal "rush" is started. In its present form, the bill authorizes the commission to delve into the profits of operators and producing companies and it is believed this power could be used by the government to prevent coal profiteering during the winter months.

The presence of the bonus bill in the senate, it was said, would delay final enactment of the Winslow bill for possibly two weeks. Senator McCumber, Republican of North Dakota, in charge of the bonus, announced today he would agree to taking it up in the senate as soon as the bonus is passed.

The bill as it now stands, provides for a report from the commission to congress and the president by Jan. 1, 1923. This provision it was said would result in the enactment of remedial legislation for future peace in the coal fields some time during the next short session of congress.

Speculation was rife today on the possible personnel of the commission. All appointments, which are to be made by the president, must meet confirmation by the senate. All members, too, must represent the public.

CANDIDATES WILL MAKE ADDRESSES AT OHIO STATE FAIR

Columbus, August 4.—Definite assurance that they will address visitors of the state fair here next Tuesday, which has been designated as Columbus and candidates day was had today by state fair officials from United States Senator Atlee Pomerene, Canton, and Congressman Simeon Fess, Yellow Springs, Democratic and Republican candidates respectively, for election to the United States senatorship, and from Carmel A. Thompson, Cleveland, and Vio Donahay, New Philadelphia, Republican and Democratic gubernatorial candidates respectively.

Following his usual custom, Governor Davis is expected to make a tour of the State Fairgrounds on Thursday "governor's day", following a luncheon at grounds he will then go to the race track, where he will present the cup to the winner in the three year old trot for the governors' purse.

I. W. W. ROUNDUP WILL BE MADE BY GOVERNMENT

Net to be Spread in Number of Western States for Radicals.

DISORDERS, CAUSE

William Z. Foster, Alleged Leader of "Reds" is Under Arrest.

Washington, August 24.—A roundup of I. W. W.'s in a number of western states, in connection with strike disorders, has been decided upon by the department of justice, it was learned today.

The department's bureau of investigation concluding an inquiry extending over several weeks, has supplied to the state authorities information which will be the basis for raids on the headquarters of alleged radicals.

Officials of the department of justice today refused to discuss the plans agreed upon.

It is understood that evidence gathered by the government on I. W. W. activity in strike zones is being transmitted direct to federal district attorneys who are turning it over to state prosecutors for such action as those authorities may see fit to take. The department's understanding with authorities of the states, where raids and arrests are scheduled, calls for close cooperation with the local officials, who are to engineer the raids.

Chicago, August 24.—With William Z. Foster, widely known radical leader, held in custody, government agents today, continued to spread the net for more than a score of alleged communists believed to have participated in the "red" convention in the Michigan woods early in the week. Foster was arrested last night.

Rose Pastor Stokes, wealthy New York, socialist left the convention before the secret service men arrived, it was stated and she was believed to be in Chicago.

The alleged radicals and communists taken in the Michigan woods raid were in jail today at St. Joseph, Michigan. They were to be arraigned today, government agents said.

FORMER RESIDENT OF ALPHA FOUND DEAD IN CINCINNATI HOTEL THURSDAY MORNING

Cincinnati, Aug. 24.—Howard A. Sayrs, 35, an expert electrical engineer, who registered from Alpha, O., was found dead in his bed at the Haylin hotel this morning with a bullet through his brain.

The man who the coroner said had been dead eight hours, had made careful preparations for his death even to leaving the amount of his hotel bill in an envelope. His uncle who is head of the department of English at Woodward High School, this city, said his nephew had been in ill health for some time. A note left by the young engineer read:

"Poor health has wrecked my life, my efforts, my ambitions. May God forgive me and bless those I love"

A telegram was received by Prof. Sayrs Thursday morning, telling of Sayrs' death but did not say that suicide was the cause.

Sayrs was single. A cousin, Walter Sayrs of Alpha also survives.

Final Show Down on Bonus Bill to Come by Week End

Senatorial Advocates of Straight Out Cash Compensation Lock Horns With Members Favoring McCumber-Fordney Measure Now Up.

Washington, Aug. 24.—Senatorial advocates of straight out cash compensation for ex-service men went to bat today when the senate resumed consideration of the McCumber-Fordney soldiers' bonus bill with little prospect of a final show down before the week end.

Senator Bursum, Republican of New Mexico, chairman of the senate pensions committee, led the fight for a cash bonus with his plan, which would provide immediate payment of 50 per cent of the amount due ex-service men on the basis of $1.25 a day for overseas and $1.00 a day for home service according to the length of that service. The remaining 50 per cent would be paid five years later.

"Pay the boys who want it—spot cash—instead of offering them promissory notes for what is owed them," was the keynote of Bursum's argument as he challenged the statement of Chairman McCumber, that deferred payment, running over forty years, as provided by the McCumber-Fordney measure, would allow the easiest solution of the bonus problem.

"The easiest solution of the question is economy, aside from giving our ex-service men what they want," said Bursum. "The chairman of the finance committee says a fair conservative estimate would place the steady rights."

AUTO ACCIDENT FATAL TO XENIA BOY THURSDAY

Carl Owens 19, Succumbs to Injuries Sustained When Auto Overturns on Dayton Pike Wednesday Night—Driver Escapes

Carl Owens, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Owens of West Main St., received internal injuries which caused his death at the McClellan Hospital at 9:45 o'clock Thursday morning, when the automobile in which he was riding with Harry Derrick, 118 Center street, skidded and overturned on the Dayton pike between Alpha and Trebels shortly after midnight.

Derrick, who was thrown clear of the machine as it turned over was uninjured with the exception of bruises and stiffness, but his companion was pinned beneath the car. The weight of the machine crushed his chest and ribs causing internal injuries that resulted in his death. Dr. R. L. Haines, county coroner, who was notified, said a post mortem would be unnecessary.

Derrick and Owens were returning from Dayton, where they had spent the evening, at the time of the accident. They were making the trip in the Chevrolet roadster owned and driven by Derrick. Shortly after the machine passed Alpha it was necessary for the driver to turn to one side of the road to pass another car. In doing so the wheels of the Derrick machine on one side struck the loose gravel and whirled around, causing Derrick to lose control. The car then dashed into a telephone pole and turned over along the side of the road.

Realizing it would be impossible for him to extricate his companion from beneath the machine by himself, Derrick enlisted the aid of passengers in an approaching automobile, running toward them on the road and hailing them to stop. With their aid, the machine was raised so that the injured youth could be removed and both occupants of the ill-fated car were brought to the McClellan Hospital here.

Young Owens was conscious at all times when physicians did not apply opiates, and did not believe in his waking moments, that his injuries would prove fatal. Hospital surgeons and attaches however recognized that his injuries were serious from the first. Derrick remained at the hospital until after the death of his companion, before he returned home and permitted a physician to examine him for injuries. It was found that he was not seriously hurt.

Carl Owens was born in Xenia, April 25, 1903, and had spent all of his life here. He attended the Xenia public schools and Central High School. He was also recognized as an athlete, having considerable reputation as an amateur boxer at one time, and had played football on local independent teams. He recently had been employed as a barber in the shop conducted by his father on West Main Street.

Surviving are the boy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Owens, of West Main Street, one brother Elmer Owens Jr., who is now employed as a lineman at Logan, Ohio, and two sisters, Mrs. Fred Wilson of Bellefontaine and Miss Pauline Owens at home.

Funeral services will probably be held Saturday afternoon although arrangements have not yet been completed.

SECRET NEGOTIATIONS BETWEEN EXECUTIVES AND UNIONS UNDER WAY

Conference Held in Effort to Patch Up Break Which Occurred Wednesday, When Owners Rejected Proposal for Seniority Restoration.

New York, August 24.—Secret negotiations between the mediation committee of the five railroad brotherhoods and a committee of rail executives representing about a score of roads were in progress today in an effort to reach a settlement of the shopmen's strike.

The chiefs of the Brotherhoods of Locomotive Engineers, Firemen, Conductors, Switchmen and Trainmen held a long conference early today with B. M. Jewell, leader of the striking shopmen, at the Woodstock Hotel. Following the break up of the meeting the brotherhood leaders departed through a rear door and it was reported that they had gone to the Yale club to meet the committee of executives.

The committee was self appointed for the purpose of giving further study to the seniority proposals of the mediation committee and to consider the advisability of entering into separate agreements with the strikers.

"I can say nothing, for too much has been said already," declared Bert M. Jewell, after the brotherhood meeting. "The only statement I can make is that we will use every endeavor possible to settle this strike. IT MUST BE SETTLED."

Subsequently it was confirmed that the brotherhood chiefs were meeting with the committee of executives at the Yale club. This committee is known as the "Daniel Willard group" after the president of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, who has taken the leadership among the executives in the movement for a strike settlement.

It was learned that the negotiations were well in way to a settlement yesterday when a premature publication of certain developments brought about collapse. The peace effort under way today, it is understood does not involve all American railroads, but only those represented on the Willard committee.

There was every indication today that the national strike of railway shopmen has settled down into a finish fight between the strikers and the railway executives.

Many of the heads of 148 American railroads, who yesterday rejected the proposal of the five railway brotherhoods mediation committee for complete restoration of seniority rights to the strikers had returned to their homes.

Both railroads executives and leaders of the railway unions admitted that the efforts of the five brotherhood chiefs to bring about a general settlement had collapsed. The stand taken by the executives in refusal to restore seniority rights is the obstacle that is blocking peace.

Clashes occurred between searchers and employees of the operating company at several places but none resulted seriously.

Hundreds of bathers and sight-seers were witnesses of the raid. In Sandusky a large quantity of liquor was seized at the Moose club, and the steward taken into custody.

A roadhouse and soft drink parlor also yielded their quota and two others were arrested.

Federal agents had been operating here for several weeks. Officials refused to state whether they possessed warrants for further arrests.

Dublin, Aug. 24.—The Curragh race meeting, one of the most popular turf events in Ireland, was called off today because of the death of Michael Collins.

DEATH WATCH KEPT ON COLLINS' BODY; HUNDREDS SORROW

Lord Mayor O'Neill May Be Tendered Post Held
By Fallen Chief.

Dublin, August 24.—Guarded by a death watch—a little handful of Irish Free State troops—the body of Michael Collins arrived here early today from Cork and was at once taken to St. Vincent Hospital to be prepared to rest in state in the city hall until Sunday.

The steamer Clasic, bearing the remains of the Irish patriot and former commander in chief of the Irish regular army, reached North Wall at 2 o'clock. Gen. Richard Mulcahy, who has succeeded Collins as commander in chief, was waiting with two companies of troops. There were about 50 civilians on hand also. They had waited all night to pay honors to the fallen statesman and soldier.

Collins' horse was led behind the coffin and in the procession were officers of the army and practically all the ministers and many members of the Dail Eireann. The music and the lamentations of mourners drew large numbers and women into the streets where they watched with streaming eyes, the funeral procession pass by. Hundreds of men and women filled the Catholic churches during the morning praying for the late statesman.

It is reported that Collins' post as chief of the cabinet might be offered to Lord Mayor O'Neill. The Lord Mayor is a Sinn Feiner but opposed the policy of the Republicans under Eamonn De Valera. He is noted for his diplomatic qualities and has long been endeavoring to establish peace between the Free Staters and the Republicans.

General Mulcahy reported that the youth of the country, angered by the killing of Collins is flocking to the standard of the free state army, vowing to avenge the country upon the irregulars.

Deep satisfaction was caused here by Colonial Secretary Churchill's statement which intimated that Great Britain would not interfere in Irish affairs but will allow the Irish to work out their destiny in their own way.

Nothing has been heard of De Valera since Collins was shot down. It is not even definitely known where De Valera is hiding. It is certain, however, that he is no longer fighting at the head of his troops.

CHINESE CIVIL WAR IS PROCLAIMED AT AN END

Shanghai, Aug. 24.—The Chinese civil war was officially proclaimed an end today. The declaration of peace was made by Dr. Sun Yat Sen, former president of the defunct government of the republic of South China, who issued a proclamation addressed to all parliamentarians. Dr. Sun said that all fighting now had been concluded.

RACE IS CALLED OFF.

MICHIGAN CHIEF EXECUTIVE SCORES FUEL COMMISSION

Lansing, Mich., August 24.—Governor Alex J. Groesbeck, of Michigan, upbraided the National Fuel Administration today in an interview following a conference with W. W. Potter, state fuel administrator, who just returned from Washington after a fruitless effort to obtain coal for this state.

Groesbeck was informed by Potter that the coal operators of the nation were today controlling the distribution of coal and his report drew scathing comment from Groesbeck against the national administration.

The Michigan governor condemned the coal operators for refusing to accept the guarantee of the state as surety payment of coal shipped into Michigan and stated that "it was a fine affair when a group of coal operators can tell a state that its guarantee for $1,000,000 is not acceptable because in case of failure to pay, a suit to collect would not be valid."

In making his report to the governor, Mr. Potter said:

"When I was in office of H. B. Spencer, national administrator, there sat in a room next to us a committee of six coal operators and these men settled every question of policy which came before the administration."

"This whole business is simply a case of the operators, telling the public and the fuel administration is a party to it."

STATUS OF BRITISH DEBT TO AMERICA DEFINED BY MELLON

Has No Connection With Britain's Other Debts Is Secretary's Belief.

Washington, August 24.—Great Britain's indebtedness to the United States, now totalling $4,135,000,000 is an entirely British-American transaction, and it has no connection whatever with Britain's other debts, or with money owed to Great Britain by other countries, or with German reparations, it was declared today by Secretary of the Treasury Mellon in a statement.

Mellon's statement was regarded as the most important declaration that has yet been made by the government defining the status of foreign loans. It was held to be particularly significant at this time—on the eve of the coming of a British debt mission to negotiate settlement terms.

Throughout the statement, which was lengthy, Secretary Mellon made it clear that the United States looks to Great Britain to liquidate her indebtedness to this government independently of Europe's financial entanglements and involvements.

In this respect, the statements were regarded as constituting an American reply to the recent Balfour note, which suggested that Great Britain could only take care of her indebtedness in relation to the amounts owed her by other nations.

BROKEN DOWN ARCHES AND SCIATIC RHEUMATISM

Dayton, Ohio, June 12, 1921.

To Whom it may concern: I suffered with Broken Down Arches, also Sciatic Rheumatism for years. I took treatments from the Doctor Kruse Sulphur Vapor Baths, 28 Pruden Bldg., Dayton, Ohio, and it gives me pleasure to recommend these baths as a cure for same. Previous to these treatments, I had worn arch supports for some time and was compelled to have them built up from time to time in order for me to be able to be on my feet. Since having taken your treatments, both Baths and Chiropactic, I am feeling fine, and the adjustment of my feet has placed my arches in proper shape again, and I do not need my arch supports any longer.

It gives me great pleasure to recommend these treatments, and for any further information you may address,

BROKEN DOWN ARCHES AND SCIATIC RHEUMATISM

Dayton, Ohio, June 12, 1921.

To Whom it may concern: I suffered with Broken Down Arches, also Sciatic Rheumatism for years. I took treatments from the Doctor Kruse Sulphur Vapor Baths, 28 Pruden Bldg., Dayton, Ohio, and it gives me pleasure to recommend these baths as a cure for same. Previous to these treatments, I had worn arch supports for some time and was compelled to have them built up from time to time in order for me to be able to be on my feet. Since having taken your treatments, both Baths and Chiropactic, I am feeling fine, and the adjustment of my feet has placed my arches in proper shape again, and I do not need my arch supports any longer.

It gives me great pleasure to recommend these treatments, and for any further information you may address,

WOULD HAVE U. S. OWN ITS POSTOFFICE BUILDINGS AS ECONOMY PROGRAM.

Congress will be asked to give its support to the plan initiated by the Postoffice department for government ownership of postoffice buildings throughout the country.

This step seems likely as the result of the decision practically reached by high officials of the Postoffice department that this plan for government-owned postoffices, instead of the present system of rented offices, will be made the major endeavor of the department for the remainder of the administration.

Congress will be consulted at every step in the scheme, which involves the purchase by the United States of more than 5,000 postoffice buildings, and sites for many more, as the parcel post business of the nation grows.

The present system of paying enormous rents, running into the millions of dollars, is regarded by postal officials as perhaps the most unbusinesslike spectacle in a government service which has in the past presented many such unbusinesslike ways of procedure.

Under the present way of doing things, a private builder borrows money, say, at 7 per cent, and builds a postoffice, for which the government pays rent year after year. The government could borrow money at 4 per cent, it is pointed out, and then would own the building itself, tax free, whereas in paying rents for postoffices it must also pay taxes, the taxes being figured into the rents by the owner.

Government ownership of all postoffices, it is pointed out, would allow the government to take the natural advantage of growth of cities, and purchase ground in advance. Thus the government would get the advantage of low cost.

"SENIORITY RIGHTS" OF RAILROAD EMPLOYEES AS DEFINED BY AUTHORITY.

There is a great deal of confusion in the public mind concerning the "seniority rights" of railroad employees.

From the many rules it is clear that old employees whose names stand toward the head of the lists of their class have by reason of that seniority these valuable privileges:

- (1) Choice of the opportunity of shifting from night work to day work.
- (2) Choice of desirable vacancies or new jobs when created.
- (3) In case of reduction of forces, assurance that they will be the last to be laid off and the first to be taken on when forces are increased.
- (4) When forces are being reduced at one point and maintained or increased at another point, the opportunity of filling the vacancies at the other point temporarily without losing their rights at their regular place of employment.

The striking railroad employees insist they should be taken back and given all the above mentioned seniority rights which they lost when they voluntarily left the employ of the railroads. The railroad executives insist that when the striking men return to work they should not be given back the above mentioned seniority rights but should take their positions as new men.

WITHOUT FUSS OR FEATHERS.

B. C. Forbes in the Chicago Herald and Examiner: "One silent man at Washington is earning the gratitude of the American public, even though the public may not be aware of this. Every Liberty bond owner could today sell his bond or bonds at a profit. All Liberty bonds and Victory notes are now selling, for the first time, above 100. Credit for this is due to Secretary of the Treasury Mellon more than to any other human being. Mr. Mellon's handling of the nation's finances has been beautifully skillful. Every move he has made has been the move of a master financial chess player. Without fuss or feathers, without causing a ripple in the market, Secretary Mellon has succeeded in reducing the interest charges to the taxpayers quite substantially and has succeeded in reducing the short-term Victory notes outstanding by $2,500,000,000. What wouldn't the services of Andrew W. Mellon for one year be worth to Germany? France, too, could well afford to pay him most handsomely to take hold of her national finances, with a free hand. The fact that Secretary Mellon has kept somewhat too much out of the limelight is no reason why the value of his services to the American people should not be frankly and gratefully recognized."

LITTLE TO BE GAINED BY TRADE WITH RUSSIA.

Regardless of the attitude of the Department of State toward the Soviet Government of Russia, the internal conditions of Russia and the policy of the Soviet Government are such that for the time being American business could gain very little by dealings with that country, it is declared in a study of Russian conditions made public by the Commerce and Marine Commission of the American Bankers' Association. The facts on which these findings are based come from Soviet publications themselves, which are quoted liberally. The report states that the files of the Department of Commerce have been used in preparing the material which is issued in pamphlet form for general distribution.

"Even under a trade agreement our exports to Russia could not have been large in the past and cannot become large in the near future," says the report. "Similarly, nothing our Government could do would increase in any important degree private investment in that country. Great as is Russia's need of foreign goods and foreign capital, its internal conditions and the policy of its rulers are such as almost to preclude the possibility of obtaining the one or the other."

NEWSPAPER COSTS

Cleveland, August 24.—When you pay a few cents for the average daily newspaper, do you realize the cost of the news it contains? If the telegraph messages in a single issue, including those of the Associated Press, were sent to you personally, it would cost you at current rates, about $642.79. This amounts to $16,712.54 a month, or $200,550.48 a year, against a few dollars a year which you actually pay for your daily newspaper.

Thus for a small amount a year you pick up what would cost over $200,000 for mere toll service alone. And no consideration is given in this estimate of the cost of sending or receiving, or cost of printing and publishing.

When you pay about 7 cents out of every dollar of your income for telephone, electric street car, gas and electric light and power-service, do you realize what it would cost if science, invention, and business brains had been lacking? They do service for you which would necessitate thirty servants. At a low average weekly wage of $20 this amounts to $600 a week or $31,000 a year. Figuring this amount as equivalent to 7 cents on every dollar of income, you would need a total yearly income of $445,700.

Thus for an expenditure of seven cents out of every dollar you earn, you get necessary service which in comparison would otherwise necessitate a yearly income of over $445,000. And no consideration is given of the speed of transportation of communication, or the instant readiness always to serve, of the public utilities.

BEAUTY CHATS

THE MOUTH AS A CLUE TO CHARACTER

A number of psychologists are claiming that the mouth reveals the character more than any other feature; and that to make an exact character study the face must be in complete repose. This is because such stiveness is attributed to the mouth that its expression is affected by each passing physical or mental reaction. Psychologists even claim that the mouth is such a "tell-tale" feature that certain qualities and tendencies are revealed by the movement of the lips.

A mouth that is contracted, with the corners drawn inward, often denotes that the person is conservative to a degree and inclined to be self-centered. These people do not usually care for society but are very loyal to their friends.

Full, moist lips, slightly protruding and of a deep healthy color are a sign of an impractical nature; however these people will be generous and very optimistic. They are often very sensitive and considered "temperamental" and somewhat lacking in self control.

The mouth with lips that are dry and easily cracked is frequently discovered as belonging to a person with an irritable disposition. But this condition may also arise from some physical cause—in which case it should not be considered in the sense of character revelation.

Suspicion and secretiveness are denoted by the mouth that slants to either side. A mouth may not be the infallible guide to character, since there are many other points to be weighed in this study, but that it is the feature most easily affected is certain. It is also the first feature to show the effect of years.

Next week I will give a talk on how to keep the mouth from aging.

Emma:—The little lines under the eyes are not due to a bad disposition. These people are only teasing you and the next time they do you may quote me as having said that they are laughing lines that appear and disappear at any age. You are probably a little run down at the present, due to working so many months without a vacation.

Miss B. N. M.:—The best soaps for shampooing are castile or tar. If your hair is oily, it shows an unhealthy condition of the scalp which you should remedy by massage and a tonic.

Ellen:—The tiny lumps under the skin are much the same as pimples and may be cured by treating them in the same way as pimples are treated.

BEST SELLERS.

I follow up my endless quest, I seek them high and low—the books that used to sell the best some twenty years ago. Our glad applause we used to give to every transient tome: "Here is a book that's bound to live until the cows come home. Oh, when, since Sappho cashed her string, were odes so ably sung? These poems will surely live, by jing, till every dog is hung." And thus, with fervor in our souls, our noble fits we'd throw; where are the deathless rigmaroles of twenty years ago? I mention books that once were sold by train loads through the land, and only gaffers growing old recall and understand. Now, Maurice Thompson's masterpiece deserved a lasting fame, but when I ask my nifty niece if she has read the same, "I've never heard of such a book," she says, and tilts her nose; "if I read all such stuff, gadzook, I'd miss the movie shows." I ask the bookstore clerks today for tales of other years; they've never heard of them, they say, and shed unbidden tears. They try to sell me current rot, but such a scheme won't go; where are the books that hit the spot some twenty years ago?

Today's Talk

AIM TO BE SUPERIOR TO YOURSELF

It is not a very worthy task to aim to become superior to someone else. That other one may not be any too superior.

Better to keep setting a mark that is much higher than any YOU have ever attained before. And then as you work up near to it, set another one—still higher.

I looked out of my office window today and watched bricklayers placing their bricks, row upon row. The head man placed a string from one end of the building to the other and then the workers completed the row. Then the head man raised the line—and the building grew in height.

I am of the opinion that such workers are inspired as they see their work mounting up into space in the shape of a great building.

What we should do is to keep aiming to be superior to ourselves.

Then we are sure to grow—and to know that we have grown.

Do not be satisfied to do any work just well enough to pass the eye of him who is your teacher or employer. Keep building better all the time. Keep breaking your own records.

The champion is he who works his way through excelling those who are weaker or less determined.

If you have had a good day today, make tomorrow a better one. The morbid mind is the one which keeps wrapping itself up instead of unwrapping itself and sending out in the world works worthy of its caliber.

Unhappiness is the child of selfishness.

The better you mould yourself, the better companion you are sure to be to others.

Disappointments wither away if you pay no attention to them. Aim to be superior to yourself! Stay away from mediocre levels of thought and action. Each foot you climb higher gives you strength and confidence for the next step up.

Brighten up! The world not only wants you—but needs you!

BEST SELLERS.

I follow up my endless quest, I seek them high and low—the books that used to sell the best some twenty years ago. Our glad applause we used to give to every transient tome: "Here is a book that's bound to live until the cows come home. Oh, when, since Sappho cashed her string, were odes so ably sung? These pomes will surely live, by jing, till every dog is hung." And thus, with fervor in our souls, our noble fits we'd throw; where are the deathless rigmaroles of twenty years ago? I mention books that once were sold by train loads through the land, and only gaffers growing old recall and understand. Now, Maurice Thompson's masterpiece deserved a lasting fame, but when I ask my nifty niece if she has read the same, "I've never heard of such a book," she says, and tilts her nose; "if I read all such stuff, gadzook, I'd miss the movie shows." I ask the bookstore clerks today for tales of other years; they've never heard of them, they say, and shed unbidden tears. They try to sell me current rot, but such a scheme won't go; where are the books that hit the spot some twenty years ago?

Today's Talk

by George Matthew Adams

AIM TO BE SUPERIOR TO YOURSELF

It is not a very worthy task to aim to become superior to someone else. That other one may not be any too superior.

Better to keep setting a mark that is much higher than any YOU have ever attained before. And then as you work up near to it, set another one—still higher.

I looked out of my office window today and watched bricklayers placing their bricks, row upon row. The head man placed a string from one end of the building to the other and then the workers completed the row. Then the head man raised the line—and the building grew in height.

I am of the opinion that such workers are inspired as they see their work mounting up into space in the shape of a great building.

What we should do is to keep aiming to be superior to ourselves. Then we are sure to grow—and to know that we have grown.

Do not be satisfied to do any work just well enough to pass the eye of him who is your teacher or employer. Keep building better all the time. Keep breaking your own records.

The champion is he who works his way through exelling those who are weaker or less determined.

If you have had a good day today, make tomorrow a better one. The morbi, mind is the one which keeps wrapping itself up instead of unwrapping itself and sending out in to the world works worthy of its caliber.

Unhappiness is the child of selfishness. The better you mould yourself, the better companion you are sure to be to others.

Disappointments wither away if you pay no attention to them. Aim to be superior to yourself! Stay away from mediocre levels of thought and action. Each foot you climb higher gives you strength and confidence for the next step up.

Brighten up! The world not only wants you—but needs you!

WALTER VAN HORNE CALLED BY DEATH

Xenia relatives of Walter Van Horne, of Cincinnati, have received the news of his death which occurred Thursday morning at his home in Cincinnati. His death followed an illness of several months from paralysis.

Mr. Van Horne, was born and reared in this city and was well known here. He was employed by the Pennsylvania R. R. Co. and for a number of years had made his home in Cincinnati.

He leaves his wife and several children and two brothers, C. S. Van Horne, of this city, and William Van Horne of Columbus.

The body will be brought to this city for burial and announcement of the funeral arrangements will be made later.

OSER TAKES FIRST STEP TOWARD HIS MARRIAGE

Basle, Switzerland, Aug. 24.—Major Max Oser, Swiss riding master and middle aged suitor for the hand of Miss Mathilde McCormick, of Chicago, pretty grand daughter of John D. Rockefeller, today deposited his citizenship papers with the proper government bureau preparatory to the announcement of the marriage banns. The banns must be proclaimed for a certain period of time before the nuptials.

Major Oser has obtained passports to visit virtually all the important countries of the world, including the United States.

Friends of Major Oser say that he appears to be unusually nervous.

While getting out the necessary papers for marriage and travel Oser was alone. Miss McCormick has left, accompanied by a maid and traveling companion for some place of retirement and her friends refuse to reveal her whereabouts.

Styles BY LENORE

A successful double role is played by a swagger-looking costume of midnight blue kasha cloth. A trim cape coat it looks like, when strolling on the street, but the removal of the cape when indoors reveals a close-fitting frock long-waisted and smooth about the hips, elegantly slim in its straightness. White pique collar and cuffs, which are of the fashionable gauntlet shape, add a pleasing touch of crispness.

The Russian peasant influence is still evident in many of the smart dresses seen in the afternoon. At bedtime the other afternoon several designs were noted in which this type of embroidery was a feature. One, a black crepe, had a deep border of red, blue and yellow crossstick at the hem, the same motif repeated in a narrow border at the neck and sleeves. A dark blue crepe de chine dress had a full skirt, and full sleeves gathered into a tight cuff lavishly embroidered in bright blues and reds.

He Will Supervise Navy Exhibit.

M. D. Schaefer, civilian aide to the Chief of the Bureau of Construction and Repair, U. S. Navy, is going to Brazil to have complete charge of the naval exhibits at the Brazilian exposition in Rio.

DEADLOCK DELAYS COAL PRODUCTION

Pittsburgh, Aug. 24.—Production at most of the mines of the Pittsburgh Coal Producers' Association has not been resumed yet, because of a deadlock, probably temporary, between the association and the United Mine Workers. Association members offered a two pay last year scale but flatly refused to either continue the check off or recognize the union by signing a contract with it. On the other hand, acting President P. T. Fagan, of district 5, has issued orders that no miners go back to work until operators individually sign a contract embodying all the terms of the Cleveland agreement.

A break in the deadlock is believed to be not far away.

In Central Pennsylvania last night operators and United Mine Workers got together and signed in district 2. This district has an annual output of 30,000,000 tons of bituminous coal. Work in that territory resumed today.

CABINET OF PORTUGAL THREATENS TO RESIGN

Madrid, Aug. 24.—The Portuguese cabinet today threatened to resign because of the financial crisis into which the country has been plunged, said a despatch from Lisbon today. The cabinet claims that its constructive efforts have been balked by political enemies among the public and among the members of parliament.

SUCH PAINS AS THIS WOMAN HAD

Two Months Could Not Turn in Bed.
Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Finally Restored Health

Seattle, Washington.—"I had dragging pains first and could not stand on my feet, then I had chills and fever and such pains in my right side and a hard lump there. I could not turn myself in bed and could not sleep. I was this way for over two months, trying everything until one told me, until my sister brought me a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took it regularly until all the hard pains had left me and I was able to be up and to do my work again. The hard lump left my side and I feel splendid in all ways. I know of many women it has helped."—Mrs. G. RICHARDSON, 4640 Orcas St., Seattle, Washington.

This is another case where Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound brought results after "trying everything any one told me" had failed. If you are suffering from pain, nervousness and are always tired; if you are low spirited and good for nothing, take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. You may not only relieve the present distress, but prevent the development of more serious trouble.

PIQUA RETURNS TO NORMALCY AFTER BLUE LAWS ENDED

Piqua, August 24.—Sunday blue laws in Piqua are no more. This was decided yesterday by Mayor A. W. DeWesse, who announced that the verdict of a jury which freed Harry W. Kress on a charge of operating a motion picture show on Sunday would be taken as an expression of public sentiment on Sunday closing. Movie houses will be open next Sunday and business will be resumed as before the enforcement of the Sunday closing law, which has resulted in the closing of practically all businesses over two week-ends.

In a statement Mayor DeWesse declared that the sentiment of a jury which had a bank president as foreman and a housekeeper as its humble member, was qualified to render a verdict in accord with public opinion, and that the Sunday closing regulations now were removed.

With one case still pending against Kress and three against Marion Bertling, another motion picture house operator, ministers say they are not going to give up their fight to invoke the "blue laws."

An action for $5,700 damages was brought by Kress as a result of his acquittal of a criminal charge of operating moving picture shows on Sunday, against Luther S. Patterson, farmer, who filed the petition in common pleas court against him. Kress asks for $5,000 exemplary and punitive damages because Patterson unlawfully and maliciously charged him with and maliciously and falsely prosecuted him for unlawfully giving a theatrical performance on Sunday, declaring he has suffered great humiliation and undergone much mental torture as a result of Patterson's action. The $700 is to reimburse him for attorney fees in the case he has filed against Patterson.

Patterson, who said he had only seen three moving picture performances in his life, declares he filed affidavit against Kress at the instigation of the Law and Order League.

ARREST ITALIANS FOR PULLING SPIKES

Brownsville, Pa. Aug. 24.—Two Italians, Paolo Di Francesco and Anthony Defere, of Allison, Pa., are in custody here yesterday while state, county and railroad officers, investigate their affiliations and past activities. The two men were arrested, police say as they were removing spikes from the Monongahela railroad in a cut four miles from here. Authorities had been tipped that an attempt would be made to wreck a train and tie up traffic on this coal railroad. Officers lay in wait and caught the two striking miners removing the spikes. Several bridges in the vicinity have been dynamited recently.

CHINAWARE BARRAGE PROVES COSTLY

Miss Dolly Fowler

Mrs. Belle Sullivan was sentenced in a Chicago court to spend six months in jail and to pay a fine of $100 for hurling a catsup bottle, a sugar bowl and other bits of chinaware at Miss Dolly Fowler in a loop restaurant.

Mrs. Sullivan declared Miss Fowler broke up her home and that when she saw her in a cafe she was unable to restrain herself. Julius Trot, who was Miss Fowler's companion, fired a revolver shot into the air to call the police, he declared.

THIEVES MAKE RICH HAUL BY TUNNELLING WAY TO STORE

Cleveland, Aug. 24.—Fur coats and other wearing apparel to the value of $40,000 was stolen by thieves, who early today tunneled their way through an adjoining piano store to the Engle and Petzer Fur Company's building here. The robbery was discovered when employees opened the store at 7 o'clock.

A large poster across the front of the piano store obscured the operations of the robber gang and they operated leisurely, taking only the most valuable articles.

ROTARY AT WORK TO AID CRIPPLES

Elyria, August 24.—Rotary Clubs all over North America, numbering 85,000 live wire business men, are engaged in a nation-wide campaign to give every crippled boy and girl in this country a new chance.

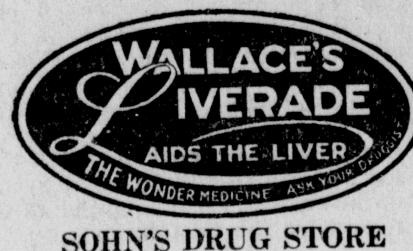

Little folks with twisted backs and crooked limbs are to be treated by experts and educated so they can take care of themselves.

It is estimated that over 300,000 crippled children will be aided in this way without cost to the child.

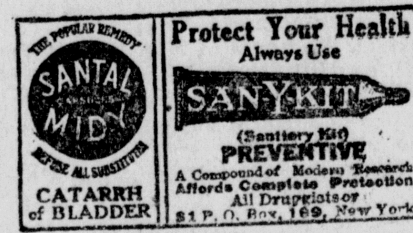

A scientific study is to be made of infantile paralysis, with the hope of discovering the cause of that disease, and steps will be taken to obtain hospital treatment for cripples in infancy when it is comparatively easy to effect permanent cures.

In order to carry forward this work the Rotarians have formed The International Society for Crippled Children, headed by Edgar F. Allen, President, Elyria, O.; J. M. Bateman, Secretary, Cleveland, O.; Frank L. Mulholland Treasurer, Toledo O. The Vice Presidents are Hart I. Seely, of Waverly, N. Y.; H. E. Van de Walker, Ypsilanti, Mich., and E. R. Kelsey, of Toledo, O.; Paul P. Harris of Chicago founder of the Rotary movement is Chairman of the Board. Arrangements are being made to open permanent international headquarters in either Chicago or New York.

Indomitable Durant

It is said in automotive circles that W. C. Durant accomplishes what he plans; to him difficulties are so many spurs to greater effort, making one get on the faster.

He is the man who made the Buick. He conceived and organized General Motors, including Cadillac, Chevrolet, Oakland and Oldsmobile. Certainly a considerable monument to one man's tireless energy.

But now, when many men would be content to enjoy a well-earned vacation, he is up to the armpits in the business of launching the crowning effort of his career.

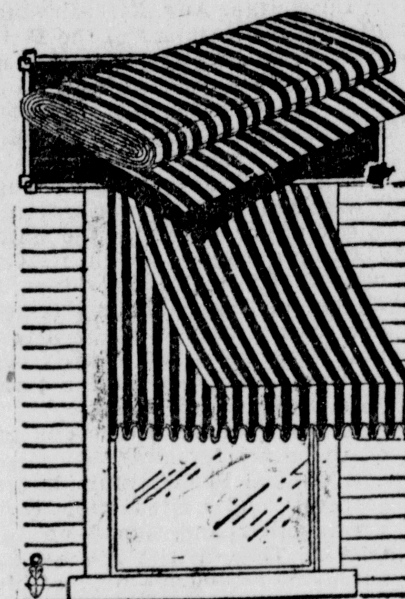

It's "just a real good car," Durant says. "If it's good enough for him to christen with his own name, it's good enough for us," said the trade, and in 141 working days after the announcement they contracted for $31,000,000 worth of Durant cars.

An action for $5,700 damages was brought by Kress as a result of his acquittal of a criminal charge of operating moving picture shows on Sunday, against Luther S. Patterson, farmer, who filed the petition in common pleas court against him. Kress asks for $5,000 exemplary and punitive damages because Patterson unlawfully and maliciously charged him with and maliciously and falsely prosecuted him for unlawfully giving a theatrical performance on Sunday, declaring he has suffered great humiliation and undergone much mental torture as a result of Patterson's action. The $700 is to reimburse him for attorney fees in the case he has filed against Patterson.

Patterson, who said he had only seen three moving picture performances in his life, declares he filed affidavit against Kress at the instigation of the Law and Order League.

ARREST ITALIANS FOR PULLING SPIKES

Brownsville, Pa. Aug. 24.—Two Italians, Paolo Di Francesco and Anthony Defere, of Allison, Pa., are in custody here yesterday while state, county and railroad officers, investigate their affiliations and past activities. The two men were arrested, police say as they were removing spikes from the Monongahela railroad in a cut four miles from here. Authorities had been tipped that an attempt would be made to wreck a train and tie up traffic on this coal railroad. Officers lay in wait and caught the two striking miners removing the spikes. Several bridges in the vicinity have been dynamited recently.

CHINAWARE BARRAGE PROVES COSTLY

Miss Dolly Fowler

Mrs. Belle Sullivan was sentenced in a Chicago court to spend six months in jail and to pay a fine of $100 for hurling a catsup bottle, a sugar bowl and other bits of chinaware at Miss Dolly Fowler in a loop restaurant.

Mrs. Sullivan declared Miss Fowler broke up her home and that when she saw her in a cafe she was unable to restrain herself. Julius Trot, who was Miss Fowler's companion, fired a revolver shot into the air to call the police, he declared.

THIEVES MAKE RICH HAUL BY TUNNELLING WAY TO STORE

Cleveland, Aug. 24.—Fur coats and other wearing apparel to the value of $40,000 was stolen by thieves, who early today tunneled their way through an adjoining piano store to the Engle and Fetzner Fur Company's building here. The robbery was discovered when employees opened the store at 7 o'clock.

A large poster across the front of the piano store obscured the operations of the robber gang and they operated leisurely, taking only the most valuable articles.

ROTARY AT WORK TO AID CRIPPLES

Elyria, August 24.—Rotary Clubs all over North America, numbering 85,000 live wire business men, are engaged in a nation-wide campaign to give every crippled boy and girl in this country a new chance.

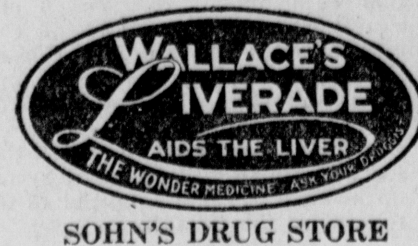

Little folks with twisted backs and crooked limbs are to be treated by experts and educated so they can take care of themselves.

It is estimated that over 300,000 crippled children will be aided in this way without cost to the child.

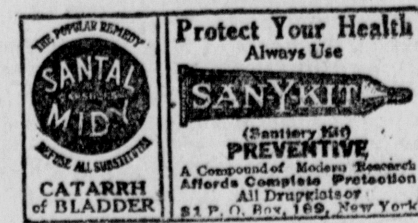

A scientific study is to be made of infantile paralysis, with the hope of discovering the cause of that disease, and steps will be taken to obtain hospital treatment for cripples in infancy when it is comparatively easy to effect permanent cures.

In order to carry forward this work the Rotarians have formed The International Society for Crippled Children, headed by Edgar F. Allen, President, Elyria, O.; J. M. Bateman, Secretary, Cleveland, O.; Frank L. Mulholland, Treasurer, Toledo, O.; The Vice Presidents are Hart I. Seely, of Waverly, N. Y.; H. E. Van de Walker, Ypsilanti, Mich.; and E. R. Kelsey, of Toledo, O.; Paul P. Harris of Chicago founder of the Rotary movement is Chairman of the Board. Arrangements are being made to open permanent international headquarters in either Chicago or New York.

Indomitable Durant

It is said in automotive circles that W. C. Durant accomplishes what he plans; to him difficulties are so many spurs to greater effort, making one get on the faster.

He is the man who made the Buick. He conceived and organized General Motors, including Cadillac, Chevrolet, Oakland and Oldsmobile. Certainly a considerable monument to one man's tireless energy.

But now, when many men would be content to enjoy a well-earned vacation, he is up to the armpits in the business of launching the crowning effort of his career.

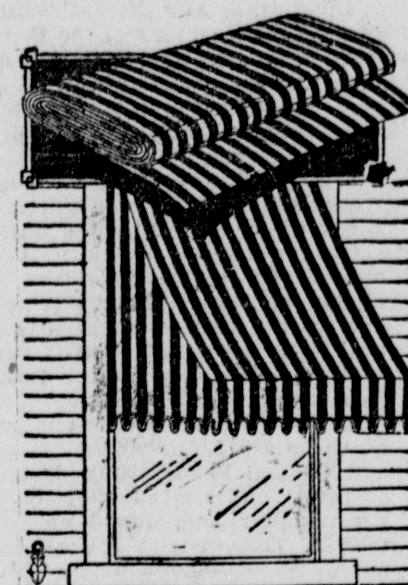

It's "just a real good car," Durant says. "If it's good enough for him to christen with his own name, it's good enough for us," said the trade, and in 141 working days after the announcement they contracted for $31,000,000 worth of Durant cars.

DEFINITE MOVE TO END GREEK TURK WAR MADE

HAY FEVER OF MRS. BERT AGIN YIELDS TO KERKER REMEDY

"Why suffer with hay fever?" is the natural query, after reading the statement of Mrs. Bert Agin, 1272 Linden Ave., Zanesville, O., who gives full credit to Kerker's Asthma and Hay Fever Remedy for the complete eradication of her hay fever. She says:

"Last summer I contracted hay fever and was fortunate in having recommended to me Kerker's Asthma and Hay Fever preparation. In a comparatively short time after starting to take it I had thrown off the ailment and have the Kerker preparation to thank for it."

(Signed), "MRS. BERT AGIN. Kerker's Asthma and Hay Fever Remedy is sold in Xenia exclusively by Sayre and Hemphill."

FROM COTTON PLANT TO COTTON CLOTH

More clothing is made from cotton than from any other fibre. The United States, Brazil, India and Egypt are all countries especially noted for cotton growing.

Cotton seeds are planted in the early Spring and the crop begins to ripen in July and continues to do so until November—sometimes until December. Cotton fibre is obtained from the seed-pods, which are called "bolls". The outside of a cotton boll is brown, but when fully ripe and ready for picking, the brown covering of the boll breaks and a white fluffy mass appears. This fluffy mass is the cotton fibre.

When the cotton is picked from the bolls it is put in bags and sent to the "gin house" where the fibres are separated from the seeds which cling to them. Long ago, the seeds were pulled from the cotton fibre by hand and it took one person a whole day to separate one pound of cotton fibre; but in 1793 Eli Whitney invented a machine called the "cotton gin" which separates the cotton fibre from the seed and automatically cleans it with great rapidity. This is considered one of the greatest inventions of civilization.

The oil from cotton seeds is used in making salad oil, cooking fats, soaps and candles; and the cake left after the oil is pressed out, is used for feeding cattle and for making fertilizer.

The cotton fibre, when separated from its seeds, is pressed into bales which are covered with cloth and bound with iron bands. They are then shipped to factories in many parts of the world where the cotton fibre is used in different ways. Some factories make only thread while others make only certain kinds of cotton cloth—such as gingham. Still other factories make only underwear or hosiery from the cotton. When the cotton bales are opened, the cotton is removed from its wrappings and placed in a machine which blows out the dust and dirt; this machine is called a "picker". When the cotton leaves the machine it looks like a roll of cotton batting about six feet wide. This roll is now placed in another machine in which the cotton is cleaned more thoroughly and the fibres are straightened. When it comes from this machine it is submitted to a process called "carding," in which it is made into a long, soft rope.

The carded cotton rope is then passed through a series of machines, each one making the rope smaller in size and twisting it to make it stronger. This process is called "spinning". The thread which is thus spun from the rope, and is to be used in making cotton cloth is called "yarn."

The yarns may now be bleached before it goes to the loom; or it may be dyed, as in making ginghams; or it may be prepared for making mercerized cotton cloth. The yarn is next "sized"—a process which consists of putting starch, or some other agent, into it to make it smoother so that it will stand the strain of weaving.

Has added flavor if served ice cold.

FARMERS ATTEND ANNUAL PICNIC DESPITE THE RAIN

The inclement weather of Wednesday afternoon did not prevent farmers of Greene County from attending the picnic fostered by the Greene County Farm Bureau, and agricultural organizations of the County, held at the Greene County Fairgrounds.

Five hundred farmers of the county packed well filled baskets and went to the fairgrounds to enjoy a full day of fun and frolic. The program of sports and contests one of the most important events among the day's activities were held in the afternoon before the rain began.

Boys and girls and men and women took part in the sport program carrying off prizes offered by the fosterers of the picnic. The prize winners of the day were: Sack race for boys, over 12, first prize, Chester Garner, second prize, Clement Henry; Sack race, boys under 12, first prize John Finney, second Billy Reed; Egg relay race for women, won by a team composed of Mrs. S. S. Linkhart, Mrs. B. U. Bell, Mrs. Ritta LeMar, and Mrs. G. M. Keach; Three legged race won by a team composed of Lawrence Brown and Clement Henry; Nail driving contest for women, won by Esther Thomas, first Pony race won by Lucille Laurens and Malcolm Finney; Second pony race won by Ruby Lynch and Imogene Lynch.

The speaking program scheduled for the afternoon was held in the grandstand of the fairgrounds, the principal address of the day being given by Oscar Pearson, prominent farmer of Miami County who delivered an interesting talk upon general farm topics, and organization work. The address was well received by the farmers attending the picnic.

Other addresses during the afternoon were given by the Rev. L. L. Gray of Jamestown, County Agent, Ford S. Prince, who spoke concerning dairy organization work in the county, and Mrs. William M. Hardman, of Yellow Springs, who told of the work the women of the county were doing.

W. B. Bryson, president of the Greene County Farm Bureau, presided over the program.

BRIDGE PARTIALLY DESTROYED BY FIRE

San Francisco, Aug. 24.—Partial destruction by fire of the Western Pacific railroad bridge over the Humboldt river east of Elko, Nevada, was reported to railroad headquarters here today. A rigid investigation of the cause of the fire was rendered. Western Pacific traffic was maintained by detouring trains over the Southern Pacific line, between Elko and Deeth, Nevada, a distance of twenty miles.

SHIP SUBSIDY BILL IS LAID ON LEGISLATIVE SHELF

Washington, August 24.—The Harding-Lasker ship subsidy bill, drafted by the administration to perpetuate the American Merchant marine, was laid high and dry today upon the legislative shelf of Congress.

With President Harding withdrawing his demand for its consideration at present session of Congress, both house and senate leaders heartily agreed to postpone action on it until after the congressional elections in November. The strong protest of congressmen against its enactment before the elections, it was said, had caused the president's action.

DUGAN APPEARS JUST IN TIME Chapter 52

It was fortunate that Dugan took an interest in Nellie, that in a way he played the sleuth where she and her men friends were concerned.

It was 9 o'clock when Cora discovered they had no butter for breakfast. The delicatessen store would be open and it was near, so no one thought of objecting when Nellie offered to go out for it.

She bought the butter also some fruit, and with her parcels under her arm started back home. It was a lovely night and she walked slowly, enjoying the soft air, watching the few lighted places she passed. She had noticed a tall fellow with a hard face in the store watching her make her purchases. But had forgotten him after she left.

"Nice night, Honey!" Someone touched her arm. It was the hard-faced fellow.

"Nice night for you to mind your own business," Nellie replied, unafraid.

"Spunky, ain't you? Well, that don't hurt you for me I like spunky girls."

"Let go my arm!"

With a laugh he withdrew his hand—cautious because they were passing a small well-lighted cigar store

"Just as you say, Honey."

"For a moment they walked on in silence. Then Nellie said:

"I didn't ask for your company—and I don't want it."

"That's because you don't know me, you Little Peach Come now, let's take a walk in the park? I'll carry your bundles," he reached for them.

"No, thank you! I can't afford an errand boy." The girl was almost home, and no thought of fear of the hulking fellow at her side entered her mind. As she reached the entrance she turned quickly and ran inside. But quick as she was he was beside her, his hand now grasping her arm tightly.

"Let go of my arm!" she ordered. "I shan't let you go, My Pretty! Taint often I catch 'em like you."

Nellie with all her strength tried to break away from him, but in vain. Neither could she reach the bell to push it. She hated to call out, to raise an alarm, but her angry voice carried, as well as her assailant's gruff tones.

Suddenly Dugan appeared from the front of the house.

"That you, Miss Nellie?"

"Yes, Dugan. Have you got your boots on?"

Now she clung to the fellow who was trying to break away, frightened when he heard a man's voice.

"Shure I has, Miss Nellie," Dugan was now inside the vestibule, barring the way.

"Then use the toe! You'll never get a better chance." Nellie released her hold of the fellow who tried to rush past Dugan, but who, true to his promise, gave him the "feel" of his boot so that he sprawled his length on the sidewalk.

"Thot!" tuch you to insult decent girls!" Dugan said, as the fellow picked himself up. "Next toime I'll break your head."

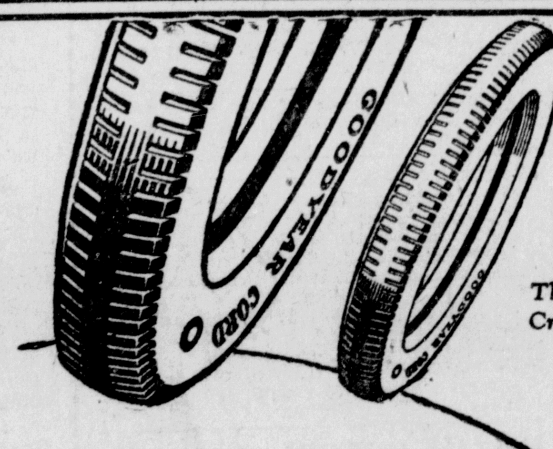

"There ain't going to be any next time, Dugan!" Nellie laughed. "But I'm glad you 'toed' him. He followed me from the store."

"Yees ain't no business goin' in the street by yourself—too many of them guys hanging around."

"Well, he didn't hurt me, Dugan, and don't say a word to the others. They would worry."

"Whist it is!" But Dugan made up his mind to keep on watching Nellie. He had been afraid of something like unto what had happened in a neighborhood of cheap apartments they were many toughs and Nellie was pretty.

The new Goodyear Cross-Rib Tread Cord

A Real Cord Tire for Small Cars at a Popular Price

The new Goodyear Cross-Rib Tread Cord in the 30 x 3½ inch-clinch type is a tire that the small car owner will warmly welcome.

It gives him, at a price lower than the net price he is asked to pay for many "long discount" tires, every advantage of quality cord tire performance, for it is a quality tire through and through.

It is made of high-grade long-staple cotton; it embodies the reliable Goodyear quality of materials; its clean-cut tread engages the road like a cogwheel.

The scientific distribution of rubber in this tread—the wide center rib and the semi-flat contour—gives a thick, broad surface that is exceedingly slow to wear.

The tough tread stock in this tire is carried down the side-walls clear to the bead, making it rut-proof to an extraordinary degree.

In every particular it is a representative Goodyear product, built to safeguard the world-wide Goodyear reputation.

Despite its high quality, and the expertness of its construction, it sells at a price as low or lower than that of tires which lack its important features.
